About Company

AlgoUniversity is a Y-Combinator backed platform built by IIIT Hyd alumni who've built the World's 2nd Best Coding LLM under the 7B models and became 1st Indian team to win Meta HackerCup AI Track for problem solving (DSA/CP). We've our own AI Research wing which aims to build a super efficient learning ecosystem for software engineering students.

We're a well funded company with our headquarters located in San Francisco and India HQ inside the IIIT Hyderabad campus, building cutting-edge learning experiences and real-world AI products.

We house a young energetic team of ACM ICPC world finalists, Olympiad medalists - who won a total of 4 medals for India. Our core team is alumni of IIIT Hyderabad, IIT Bombay, and IIM Indore. We are proudly backed by YCombinator, one of the world's best start-up accelerators.
